

Ural Research Institute of Maternity and Child Care» Ministry of Public Health

We not only know how to help you,

We do not just know how to do it,

We do it every day.

You are on the website of the Federal State Institution «Ural Research Institute of Maternity and Child Care» Ministry of Public Health» of the Russian Federation.

The Ural Research Institute of Maternity and Child Care is the largest research institute providing high-tech medical care to high-risk pregnant women and their newborns.

The Ural Research Institute of Maternity and Child Care performs scientific, organizational and methodological work, introduces modern methods of diagnosis and treatment of perinatal pathology, including intrauterine surgery, assisted reproductive technologies, develops innovative areas, prepares highly qualified medical professionals.

The Ural Research Institute of Maternity and Child Care is the basis for implementing of public health promotion programs for of women and children.

For you, the institute has 11 departments and 6 laboratories in which are working 3 professors, 14 MD, 52 PhD, 5 honored doctors of the Russian Federation.

The Ural Research Institute of Maternity and Child Care implements the following proposals for the Medical Tourism in the “Obstetrics”, “Gynecology”, “Reproductive Medicine”, “Neonatology” and “Pediatrics” industries:

1. All types of fetal surgical interventions, including intrauterine intravascular blood transfusion to the fetus during fetal anemia due to hemolytic disease or non-immune fetal dropsy
2. Complete invasive and non-invasive prenatal diagnostics of fetal malformations
3. Assisted reproductive technologies, including prenatal genetic testing
4. Treatment of uterine fibroids without surgery - Focused ultrasound ablation of uterine fibroids under MRI control
5. Personalized preparation of the endometrium in patients with recurrent implantation failures in IVF programs using nanotechnology

6. Complete clinical study for infertility, recurrent miscarriages, including molecular genetic diagnosis

7. Surgical treatment of tumors of the uterus and ovaries during pregnancy by endoscopic and minimally invasive methods with immunohistochemical examination of the tumor

8. All types of surgical treatment in gynecology using minimally invasive surgery, including

- surgical correction of malformations of the genital organs according to the author's methods,
- laparoscopic simultaneous operations in case of widespread infiltrative genital endometriosis with damage to the adjacent pelvic organs,

- plastic surgery on the uterus with insolvency scar from cesarean section and myomectomy

9. Anti-aging gynecology, including reconstructive plastic surgery for prolapse of the genitals, plastic and aesthetic surgery of the perineum, as well as personalized treatment programs for menopausal disorders

Our address:

The Ural Research Institute of Maternity and Child Care

620028 Russia Ekaterinburg, Repin Street, 1

Phone: +7 (343) 371-87-68

City transport stop "Area of Communards"